Recognition of Prior Learning / Credit Transfer

Credit Transfer is a process that provides participants with credit outcomes for components of a qualification based on identified equivalence in content and learning outcomes from previous studies. Where a participant provides suitable evidence they have successfully completed a unit or module at any RTO, Pacific Institute of Leadership And Governance provides credit for that unit or module. In some cases, licensing or regulatory requirements may prevent a unit or module being awarded through a credit process. Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) is the acceptance that skills and knowledge, expressed as units of competency, are acquired through many sources such as life experiences, work experience, formal and informal training. RPL assessment is a process to enable participants to demonstrate the achievement of these competencies and to be granted recognition for their skills and knowledge upon satisfying specific criteria verifying their competence. Assessment for RPL is carried out to the same standards as any other assessment of the same competencies. Recognition of Current Competency (RCC) applies if an individual has previously successfully completed the requirements of a unit of competency or module and is now required to be reassessed to ensure that the competence is being maintained. It is particularly relevant where there is a requirement for an occupational license or ticket in order to practice in the skill area, e.g. first aid, meat inspection. The application form below must be completed and submitted by participants wishing to apply for Credit Transfer or RPL/RCC. This form must be accompanied by appropriate supporting evidence as discussed with Pacific Institute of Leadership And Governance Learning & Development Consultant.

Verification of Documentation

Pacific Institute of Leadership And Governance recognises verified testamurs from other Registered Training Organisations. This applies to all cases, including participants seeking credit transfer for previous study, and personnel documentation. Where documentation is provided by the participant, is a copy of the original, the copy must be an 'original copy' certified by a person who is on the list of approved witnesses who can verify documents. A list of approved witnesses is available at the Commonwealth Attorney General's Department website at: www.ag.gov.au/Publications/Pages/Statutorydeclarationsignatorylist.aspx. Where Pacific Institute of Leadership And Governance personnel are verifying participant documentation: 1. The original documentation is sighted. 2. Where there is doubt over the authenticity of a testamur, the document is confirmed with the relevant issuing organisation. 3. A copy of the original documentation is taken. 4. The Pacific Institute of Leadership And Governance representative may certify the documentation by signing and dating that the documentation has been verified, with the statement "I confirm that this document is a true and accurate copy of the original". Please upload a file of any testamurs or other supporting evidence (optional):
